

1. Introduction

Bismillahir Rahmanir Rahim

Honorable President of the annual general meeting of Bangladesh Council for Child Welfare-BCCW, the integrated organization of voluntary child and adolescent welfare organizations that started at the beginning of the last century, the colleagues of the executive committee and the dear honorable councilors representing the organizations included in BCCW, Assalamu'alaikum.

First of all, thanks to Almighty Rabbul Alamin for controlling the outbreak of deadly covid-19 worldwide and bringing some relief to everyone. Alhamdulillah. May Allah protect us all. BCCW warmly congratulates and welcomes everyone for participating in the meeting in response to the welfare of the children who are going to write the future of the country and the nation.

We have crossed the 52nd anniversary of our beloved motherland's independence. At this moment, I remember the greatest architect of Bangladesh, Father of the Nation, Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman. I pray for the salvation of the souls of the known and unknown brave martyrs dedicated to the independence, formation and development of the dear motherland Bangladesh, which is glorified by the sacrifice of millions of martyrs.

Sincere gratitude to those who have worked and continue to work selflessly and relentlessly for the continuous work of BCCW. I pray for the salvation of the souls of all those who lost their lives in all the calamities and accidents that happened in the country and outside the country during the year of this work.

With the love and support of all, the current Executive Committee was elected for a 3-year term in accordance with the latest approved constitution at the 31st Biennial Council Session held on March 19, 2021 and assumed office on March 31, 2021. For more than 66 years, BCCW has reached its present position with the concerted efforts of all. In this long cycle the initiative, action and motivation of many are involved; The acknowledgment of their contribution is reflected in every garment of this institution; They are forever remembered by all of us.

Throughout the current working year, the active councilors along with the executive committee members have devoted their valuable time to the service and activities of this institution with sincerity and dedication. Many achievements have been made possible by combining the advice and experience of the seniors with the labor and assistance of the freshers. 7 standing sub-committees and 5 periodic committees were formed soon after taking charge. By implementing their well-thought-out recommendations, the regular programs have been successfully completed on an increased scale, and numerous new activities have been launched this year.
